S. B. No. 74

(6) Administer all local ordinances, regulations and standards pertaining to health and sanitation;

(7) Establish and maintain medical, environmental, occupational and other laboratory services deemed necessary or proper for the protection of the public health;

(8) Establish and operate reasonable health programs, not inconsistent with state law, that are necessary or desirable for the promotion or protection of the public health and the control of disease or which may be necessary to ameliorate the major risk factors associated with the major causes of injury, sickness, death, and disability in the state;

(9) Close theaters, schools, and other public places and forbid gatherings of people when necessary to protect the public health;

(10) Abate nuisances to eliminate sources of filth and infectious and communicable diseases affecting the public health and bill the owner or other person in charge of the premises upon which this nuisance occurs for the cost of abatement;

(11) Make necessary sanitary and health investigations and inspections, on its own initiative, or in cooperation with the department, as to any matters affecting the public health;

(12) Make reports to the department as prescribed by department rules or contract;

(13) Cooperate with the department in all matters pertaining to the public health and in the administration of state health laws;

(14) Establish and collect appropriate fees, to accept, use and administer all federal, state, or private donations or grants of funds, property, services, or materials for public health purposes, and to make such agreements, not inconsistent with law, as may be required as a condition to receiving such donation or grant;

Dear Bob and Shirley,

June 30, 1995

Earl and I have just returned from a trip to Kingston, Ontario, Canada, where I presented a paper on my book at the Mormon History Association Conference. It went very well.

I appreciate your interest in Mountain Meadows Witness. A six month delay on publishing took place when the publisher had a bout with cancer. September is the deadline. Because they are small, but a prestigious publishing house, the first printing will sell out fast.

The publisher is allowing me to sell the book to friends and relatives at a small discount. The Arthur H. Clark Company sells to collectors and libraries, which reflects the quality of their books. For the avid collectors they offer a limited keepsake edition, retailing at about $120.00. Can you even imagine anybody spending that much for a single book. It will however include a small paperback copy of the Carleton Report, which I traveled to the National Archives to acquire. This is the report on the investigation the government made of the massacre. The "Keepsakes" will all be sold before the book reaches the market. If you are avid enough to want the "Keepsake" edition it can be yours for $95.00.

Orders from my friends and relatives have been coming in now with a $10.00 deposit for each book-- with the balance of $19.50 to be paid by September 1st. The Carleton Report will be sold separately, but, I don't know how much it will cost. Not everyone will want it. My order will have to be sent in fast to get in on the first edition. The expense of good books has gone up, but, I have no control over it--except when I cut down on the number of pictures and illustrations used.

I am enclosing a flyer, the company has put out, for you to get an idea of what this book is about.

My second book, Through Bonds of Love, hasn't found a publisher yet. It is a dramatized, documented history of my Grandmother Urie, whom I believe to be the eighteenth surviving child of the massacre, who was raised by Mormons. Because I took the liberty of adding dialogue the publishers frown on the idea of publishing such a book. There was no other way to write the book and make it interesting to readers. With all the wonderful excerpts from letters and the such, the book has a wide LDS audience. The publisher at Utah State Press has been mulling the manuscript over for about four months.

I hope everything is well with you and your family. So much has been going on with this book and all, that there is hardly time for anything else.

Please don't feel obligated to buy the book.

Bob, we are still looking for you to come to our home for you to take a picture of our painting.

MOUNTAIN MEADOWS WITNESS

The Life and Times of Bishop Philip Klingensmith

By Anna Jean Backus

"You are ordered out armed and equipped as the law directs to go to the Mountain Meadows"

A VALUABLE NEW BOOK - A MUST FOR EVERY MORMON HISTORY BOOKSHELF

A MISSING PIECE in the history of the Mountain Meadows Massacre, Klingensmith's story is now told. Klingensmith's connections with George A. Smith, Isaac C. Haight, Brigham Young, Parley P. Pratt, Isaac Morley, John M. Higbee, John D. Lee and Jacob Hamblin, are all portrayed. Events, orders, letters and meetings all leading to the Mountain Meadows Massacre are discussed in detail. Our knowledge of John Higbee's control of the militia, as well as the fear of non-Mormons (fueled by Church patriarchs and George A. Smith) are expanded by this account. For the first time the possibility of Jacob Hamblin's presence at the massacre is supported with new information.

MORMON ADVENTURER, settler and pioneer, Philip Klingensmith was witness to and participant in the Mountain Meadows Massacre. This well-documented and comprehensive history follows his life as it entwined with the Church, and consequently, the Mountain Meadows Massacre.

CINEMATICALLY DRAWN FROM LETTERS, trial testimony, journals and diaries, a compelling account follows Philip from his birth in Pennsylvania and religious roots in Minnesota, to pioneering the settlement of Utah and Nevada, and ordination to Bishop in Cedar City in 1852, then on to the Mountain Meadows and the torment of its aftermath.

FIRST TO CONFESS complicity in the massacre, Klingensmith gave testimony at the first trial of John Doyle Lee, after eighteen years of exile. His affidavit regarding the affair, made in Lincoln County, Nevada, which drew criticism from all sides, is included.

DILIGENT RESEARCH has uncovered primary source material long inaccessible. Trial testimony and letters clarify the details of Klingensmith's role in the Church, the Mormon community, and Mountain Meadows. Klingensmith's position and actions, previously blatched in the wake of Mormon leaders, is now recovered, lending insight to the history of the massacre.

KLINGENSMITH'S LIFE in the aftermath is rescued from obscurity in the final chapters. In the face of opposition, his frontier pioneer life of adventure, discovery, settlement, prospecting and service to the Indians continued until his death.
